Lilith Black, or Lilith the Scourge, once the demon terror of the old world, now a reformed demon fighting for humanity, has returned. After an unfortunate trip on the doomed Titanic liner, Lilith was rediscovered in the murky depths of the ocean ninety seven years after she fell victim to an avenging Angel with a grudge during the wild panic of the sinking ship.

Rather than continue her trip to the shores of America, Lilith returned to her adopted home of Britain, and after several botched attempts at teleporting herself to London, found herself wandering the darkened streets of Cardiff, Wales in the United Kingdom.

Lilith's return and entrance into three young student's lives sparks a change in the hidden world around them - angry demons still fuming about her betrayal and switch to protector of humanity, humans returning from the grave for their own ends and the very Angel who put her in her watery coma - all return in the lead up to the ultimate demon attack - on Earth.

Lilith must fight to defend the place she now calls home, the humans and mortals she calls friends, against the demons she betrayed over a thousand years ago.
