A travelogue of the Aran Islands with beautiful woodcut illustrations.

The geography of the Aran Islands is very simple, yet it may need a word to itself. There are three islands: Aranmor, the north island, about nine miles long; Inishmaan, the middle island, about three miles and a half across, and nearly round in form; and the south island, Inishere--in Irish, east island,--like the middle island but slightly smaller. They lie about thirty miles from Galway, up the centre of the bay, but they are not far from the cliffs of County Clare, on the south, or the corner of Connemara on the north.

Present, the Aran Islands or The Arans are a group of three islands located at the mouth of Galway Bay, on the west coast of Ireland.
